Chapter 28

A vaahoa kave goroto – The launching of the turtle net

Enoch Horai Magum

(1)	A vaahoa kave goroto na tei me nana bona maa taatate nae.	The launching of the turtle net is associated with certain customs.
(2)	O taatate bona o vasisio na vavasisio kurusu ni raara.	These respected customs are very much respected by us.
(3)	A otei vai a too aito toro viana ta buaku ge ta dorana ta otei, eove repaa mee ri bari rasuu tea aito.	A man, an expert on herbs, selects two or four men, and then he takes them into the jungle to collect herbs.
(4)	Beori aito vakavara maa, eori repaa ma hee ni bona aito tea peha moon to pasi ato ge kikira ni nom bona.	When they have collected the herbs, they give them to a woman who will hold them or take care of them.
(5)	A aito vai toro paku ara, beara vaasubunubu ni rara a vaahoa na kave goroto.	We must collect these herbs, when we plan the launching of the turtle net for the next day.
(6)	A moon vai to kahi ato ni nana bona aito toro vaavavina nana bona too vaahito na kave goroto.	The woman who will hold the herbs must be the sister of the owner of the turtle net.
(7)	Teo bon vaahoa na kave, eara repaa isuvu to buo koopu ruene,	On the day of the net launch, we fill two bamboo water containers,
(8)	eara repaa vaatei a aito teebona.	and then we put the herbs into them.

(9)	Beara tau tahoa rakaha, eara repaa vaobete o buo ruene komano sinivi to vaahae batana bona kave.	Just when we are about to set off, we put the two water containers into the canoe which has the net on board.
(10)	Beara nao komana tahii, eara repaa sisi mana a kave teebona.	When we put to sea, we sprinkle the net with them.
(11)	O hum busubusu ge veo goroto na vanata komana ni raara ei saka tea irihi haana,	The place where the net is thrown or where the turtle netting is done, we know, this is not at the edge of the reef.
(12)	Ahiki, amaa hum veo goroto toro kakaamuru to hiki nae o vasu.	No, the places for turtle netting must be the white sand without stones.
(13)	Beara busu gunaha nia kave en teo hum vasuvasu, a kave toro hana.	If we threw the net at a place full of stones, the net would get caught up there.
(14)	Mea maa hum veo goroto teara a ta Teapu ei Taenaruene, Teopasuna, Teanin.	The turtle netting places of us Teop people are Taenaruene, Teopasuna, Teanin.
(15)	Amaa hum bona kou na hiki nana to vasu, o kakaamuru koa.	These places do not have any stones, just white sand.
