(4)	O vuaba vai o varutaa na dao raara bono haopi suuna.	The smaller one is called haopi suuna (genuine wrasse).
(5)	Evehee o hena beera o haopi.	But the general name is wrasse.
(6)	Beara tau vagana haopi, eara repaa tara rakerake bata o sii vahara vasu beori ravun vaa tea vaakororovi rori.	When we are about to catch wrasses, we search for little stones being heaped up in a circle.
(7)	Beara tara ahe eve, eara toro huu hopo ni nao a sinaka,	When we spot it, we must push the fishing-stick into it,
(8)	ei pasi pahin tahi ahe koa vuara.	this (means) we will immediately spear it.
(9)	Eara repaa kasi, are kasi antee beara kasi ahe komana e.	Then we will dig and dig until we recognize it.
(10)	Ato nie teo buo ketaa nae, eara repaa rahi tavusu e.	(We) hold it on its two gills, and then we pull it out.
(11)	Ei asun vamate vai ara.	Now we kill it.
(12)	Evehee na teitei batana a sii vapara nae.	But usually there is also its partner.
(13)	Goe tea nao vananaoana vira bean asun vakavara o peho.	Don't go too far away when you have killed one.
(14)	Tara rakerake vaha koa o meho rihinae.	Just search for the other one nearby.
(15)	Ean paa kasi e.	You dig it out.
(16)	Eara samin doana haara, na pahin kasi ona bata koa raara.	We never fail, we immediately dig (and) catch (it).
(17)	Eara toro matatopo bata koara to mene rosin tavusu maa.	We must be prepared that it might come out (and) escape.
(18)	Kikira vakikis bata koa ni nom eve.	Just keep carefully watching it.
(19)	Eara mee toro goe tea ato o haopi en vihi nae, ei kou to mene dohi ore paa rosin.	Also, we must not hold the wrasse on its tail because it might slip (out of your hands) and escape.
(20)	Evei o sii vahutate vaa tea vagana haopi.	This is the little description of catching wrasses.
